

Name _____

Abbreviations

Match the abbreviation with the correct meaning.

VIP

Q&A

USA

BFF

ASAP

BLT

OJ

UFO

PTA

LOL

Bacon Lettuce &
Tomato

Best Friends
Forever

As soon as possible

Orange Juice

Unidentified
Flying Object

Parent Teacher
Association

Laugh out Loud

Questions and Answers

Very Important
Person

United States of America

Bonus: Write 5 sentences using abbreviations on the back of paper.

Name _____

Brainstorming

In chapter eight Annabelle and her group of classmates had to brainstorm some ideas for a project. If you and your friends had to work on a project about Dr. Martin Luther King, what are some ideas you could brainstorm together?

Name _____

What Can You Protest For Or Against?

In Chapter Five, Mrs. Phillips has her drama students act out a play which has a protest scene. The students were protesting for equal rights and fair laws for African Americans. Protesters organize and make their opinions and voices heard.

*Pretend you and a group of students were protesting for or against one of the following topics. Write a short paragraph explaining your opinion for or against a topic. You can also think of your own topic.

Topics for Protest

- Better Cafeteria Food
- More Afterschool Activities
- Homework Once a Week Only
- Shorter School Days
- Using Cell Phones to Do Classwork
- Friday Fun Day Every Week
- Wearing Uniforms in School
- Listening to Music During Lunch in Cafeteria
