

Name _____

Poetry

Fill in missing words to complete the short poetry rhymes.

Sugar and spice
I think you are _____.
I like the way you dress.
I think you're the _____.

Six, seven, eight
I think you are really _____.
Your shoes are so cool.
You really love _____.

You're pretty tall.
You like to go to the _____.
I like the way
That you play _____.

You've always been
A really good _____.
Maybe we could play
And have a good _____.

Now try making up your own short poetry rhymes! Using a rhyming dictionary can really help.

Name _____

Famous African Americans

Fill in the name of the Famous African American in the box that makes the sentence correct. Do research on the computer to find information.

Bessie Coleman	Rosa Parks	Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
Madame C.J. Walker	Marian Anderson	Thurgood Marshall
Frederick Douglas	Mary McLeod Bethune	Harriet Tubman

_____ led many slaves to freedom as a conductor on the Underground Railroad. She made over 19 trips to the South to rescue slaves.

_____ refused to give up her seat on a bus to a white man. This action started the Bus Boycott in Montgomery, Alabama.

_____ was the first African American Aviator. She earned her pilot's license in France.

_____ became the first African American to become a Supreme Court Justice. Before that position, he was a lawyer who fought for the Civil Rights of African Americans.

_____ became a great abolitionist of his time who spoke out about the cruel conditions of slavery, which he experienced himself.

_____ was one of the greatest Opera singers of her time. She became the first African American to perform at the New York Metropolitan Opera in 1955.

_____ was a well-known civil rights leader who fought non-violently for justice and equal rights for African Americans in this country.

_____ became the first female self-made millionaire in America by becoming a successful hair and cosmetics entrepreneur.

_____ was an educator who started a school for African American girls in 1904. The school later became the Bethune-Cookman College.

Name _____

Thought Bubble

What would you say if someone wanted you to share a secret you really didn't want to tell? Fill in the thought bubble and finish drawing a picture of yourself and the other person.

